Gallia Palace Hotel Beach & Spa

Tucked away on the bay of Punta Ala, in front of the Tuscan archipelago, there lies the Gallia Palace and its dolce vita style. Immersed in a secular pine grave and Mediterranean macchia, the hotel boasts a private fully serviced sandy beach, a 25 meter outdoor pool, wellness Spa and gym. It also features a private yacht for daily excursions to the nearby islands.

OWNERSHIP

The Gallia family belongs to history of Italian hospitality, formerly owners of the iconic Excelsior Gallia Hotel and the Grand Hotel Continental in Milan. The Gallia Palace Hotel was built in 1962 in Punta Ala from the second generation of Carlo Gallia's family and was the first Italian hotel to join Relais & Châteaux in 1973. Nowadays the Gallia-Ansaldi family has been welcoming guests for three generations with the same passion and love for hospitality and a clear motto: "Take pride in serving and pleasing our guests".
